

NOTHING IS GOING TO HAPPEN UNLESS YOU DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

IT is: the police, our jobs, our misery, our desperation, our poverty, our limitations, our boredom, our disconnection, our lack of interest, our exhaustion, our diseases, our void, our society that is not ours, but an imposed social system we are all forced to survive.

DOING SOMETHING: Is choosing to stand up as opposed to kneel down. It is choosing to act on our desires, as opposed to accepting whatever reality we are told was meant for us. It is acting with the knowledge that discontent is not an isolated experience. To do something now, we have to “come together to tear “it” apart”. We need to move beyond the identities that serve to keep us disconnected. It is not only moving beyond these separations that come with race, class, gender, sexual orientation, or “culture”, but quite literally destroying and eliminating the foundation for such identities completely.

The mediums for change, and the science of political possibility will keep us hoping as opposed to doing. We do not need leaders, we need instigators.. The police, the wealthy, the social make up of the modern world is not worthy of our patience any longer. If we choose to continue to stand by and wait for “justice”, we will only continue to survive society on our knees, as opposed to living our lives on our terms.

IT IS NOT SIMPLY REACTING, BUT ALSO ATTACKING

SABOTAGE POLICE:

Attack their cars, their stations, or their hang out spots. Shatter their comfort, as they have always done to ours.

SABOTAGE WEALTH:

People and symbols. Steal from work, scam chain stores, torment rich neighborhoods, destroy urban development, find out where your boss lives.

RIOT:

Every chance you get. With your block, your friends, or your birthday party.

The adrenaline of revenge is contagious;

REVOLT is simply too feasible through our common frustrations, now, right now, is the time to stop accepting and standing still.

YOU KNOW
WHAT WE'RE TALKING ABOUT.
